ABOUT THE TUTOR

Hello! My name is Gezi Cox, and I am excited to share my love of the Chinese language and culture with your children. I grew up in the city of Kunming located in the Yunnan Province of China. After graduating from the Harbin University of Commerce in northeast China with a bachelor's degree in business, I worked as a college teacher, TV reporter and a marketing manager.

Thirteen years ago, I married my husband, Oscar, where we lived in Denver, Colorado. This is where I began to teach at the Chinese Weekend School and tutor private students. I knew then that I had found my life's calling: teaching others the Chinese language and culture.

Shortly after moving to Grand Rapids, I joined the faculty at the Grand Rapids Chinese Language School teaching classes which included middle and high school students, as well as adults. My private students range from age five to adult.

My home is in Rockford, where I live with my husband, Oscar, and my 11 year-old son, Christoffer. We worship at Blythefield Hills Baptist Church. I feel so blessed for my family and my life, and I thank God for the opportunity to share my passion with you and your children.
