ABOUT THE TUTOR

Growing up in a Pastor's home, I came to a saving knowledge of Christ at a young age. It has been with amazement and awe that I have seen Him work directly in my life to bring me to where I am today. I attended both Cedarville and Cornerstone Universities and graduated with a degree in Secondary English Education and Speech Communications.

While I have taught in both a Christian and Public High School setting, after having my first child I decided to stay home and 'teach' my own children. However, because I love teaching High School English so much, I am so thankful that God opened the door for me to be a stay-at-home mom AND do what I love! I have worked within the Homeschool

Community for the last fourteen years tutoring students, teaching Literature/Writing Classes at the Parent/Teacher Co-Op of Grand Rapids (PTC) for eleven of those years, two years at Koinonia and helping with a little Choreography for the Homeschool Performing Arts (HPA) program.
